WHAT WE WERE WAITING FOR

Home Account of Thomas-Large Wedding at Gresham, Nebraska, Last Thursday

The Herald has received what it has been waiting for, a home account of the Thomas-Large wedding which took place at Gresham, Nebraska, December 18. It has come to hand in the Gresham Gazette of December 25, and is as follows:

The home of T. G. Thomas was the scene of a pretty home wedding when Mr. Harrison P. Large and Miss Mary A. Thomas were united in marriage by the Rev. J. H. Fowler, Thursday evening, Dec. 18, 1913. The bride is well known to the people of this place, having grown to young womanhood in this community, but who for some time past has lived in Alliance, Neb., where she has been employed in a telephone office. Mr. Large is a train man in the employ of the Burlington with a run between Alliance, Neb., and Hagemont, S. D. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. John Shay and Miss Alice Large, both of Alliance.

About forty relatives were present to attend the ceremony, the only out of town people being Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Fair of Weber, Kansas. A delicious two course supper was served which was enjoyed by all. We are sure that the good wishes of their many friends will be with these young people as they go to their new home.

It is a pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Large's many friends to know that they will continue to make their home in this city. The esteem in which they are held by those who know them best was shown by the party given Miss Thomas by her associates of the telephone office and operating force previous to her departure for Gresham, where the wedding took place, those present at the party being, besides the bride and groom to be, Mrs. Anna Chaffee, Christina Fenning, Dossie Cunningham, Maggie Keiser, Nina Martin, Minnie Morrison, Hazel Cramer, Bess Brown and John Shay.

GOT GUTHRIE MIXED UP

Fremont Tribune Gives Alliance Man Two Titles He Had Never Used Before

John W. Guthrie of Alliance has been called by a number of titles, but a couple of new ones were sprung on him the other day when he received a clipping out of the Fremont Tribune of December 26 from Harry Houser, chief of the Fremont fire department.

The piece in the Tribune read as follows: Nebraska firemen are up in arms and some towns in the northwestern part of the state are talking seriously of boycotting the Columbus convention in January because of a charge that the hotels at Columbus are playing a "holdup game".

It is claimed that Columbus has taken the trouble to request that trackage room for the usual firemen's special cars be refused by the railroad companies, which means, of course, that the delegates will not have their private berths to sleep in, but must go to the lodging houses for rooms. It is claimed by firemen that no town in the state is big enough to accommodate the convention in a satisfactory manner without the assistance of these "private" cars and that therefore the attitude of Columbus assumes a ridiculous aspect.

The Fremont department is informed of prospective action of some kind by a letter from Judge John W. Guthrie, former mayor of Alliance and a fire leader in the northwest, who writes: "We endeavored to get a car for our delegation and were informed that Columbus people had protested against trackage room being allowed us. I have just written Bert Galley asking what they mean by such conduct. I am assuring him that if Columbus persists in such an attitude, that Alliance, Scottsbluff, Mitchell, Crawford, Chadron and other towns in this part of the state will not be represented at the Columbus convention."

BOOZE DOWNS "SUNNY JIM"

Again Falls Victim to His Appetite for Liquor and Gets into Trouble Once More

The genial James Donovan, known about town as "Sunny Jim", has again fallen the victim of his well known falling, that of taking on too much booze. After tarrying at the cup that intoxicates as well as cheers, he went to the Crystal theatre where he proceeded to put on a number that was not down on the program. Harry A. DuBoque, the proprietor, doesn't stand for that kind of performance, accordingly had him arrested on the complaint of being drunk and disorderly. The judge assessed him fifty dollars, which he refused to pay, in default of which he was committed to jail for twenty-eight days.

The Herald regrets exceedingly to see "Sunny Jim" getting into so much trouble on account of the drink habit, and hopes that while spending New Year's day in the bustle he will take time to turn over a new leaf for the coming year.

Broken Bow Defeated Last Night by Alliance Basketball Players. Score 32 to 13

BROKEN BOW, Dec. 30.—The Alliance High school basketball team won the first game of the big trip last night when they defeated Broken Bow by a score of 32 to 13. The Alliance boys were on their mettle and had the best of the game from start to finish both in team work and in fast playing.

The game was very slow. Johnson and Nolan were both given a chance playing center in the second half for practice. Davenport also played right forward during the last half of the game. All are looking forward with interest to the game tonight with Ravenna.

REVEALS LOCOMOTIVE'S NUMBER

An electric searchlight is attached to the side of an interlocking tower on one of the eastern railroads for the purpose of enabling the operator to read the numbers of the locomotives at night. The searchlight consists of a 100-watt carbon filament, 110-volt lamp placed within a ten-inch parabolic reflector. It is supported by a bracket bolted to the side of the building at a height of about eight feet above the rails. The reflector is placed in such a position that the rays of light are projected normally across the tracks. The operator controls the lamp by means of a switch placed in the tower.—Popular Electricity.

U. P. BLAMES PULLMAN CO.

Says Columbus People Had Nothing to Do with Refusal to Park Cars During Convention

It is believed by some of the Alliance firemen that the Union Pacific railroad is responsible for the refusal to permit Pullman cars to be parked at Columbus during the annual convention in January. They say that if the Alliance car would be sent around to Columbus via Sidney instead of Grand Island, so the Union Pacific would get the long haul instead of the Burlington, there would be no trouble in getting the cars parked.

The Union Pacific blames the Pullman company for the trouble. The following article from the Omaha World-Herald of December 28th gives their reasons:

In speaking of the "row" alleged to have been started by members of the State Fireman's association, which holds its annual convention at Columbus in January, because Pullman cars will not be allowed to be parked at that city during the session, to be used for hotel purposes, Union Pacific officials say that the blame lies not with the business men of Columbus.

A dispatch from Fremont says that there is a threatened boycott of the convention because the business men of Columbus have "requested" the Union Pacific to refuse to grant track facilities for the parking of the cars.

The Union Pacific passenger officials say that the Pullman company objects to using cars for hotel purposes, especially on such a short haul, and that this will not be done out of deference to the Pullman company. They add that the trackage at Columbus is not adapted for parking anyway. It is further asserted that the citizens of Columbus had absolutely nothing to do with the decision in the matter.

These passenger officials also say that Pullman cars when parked are very unsanitary as an abode for a considerable length of time, and Columbus hotels will be adequate for handling the attendance at the convention.

GOVT. PROTECTS CHEYENNE WATER

Secretary Lane Recommends Withdrawal of Large Area of Public Land in Wyoming

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Secretary Lane of the Interior Department has just recommended to the President the withdrawal of a large area of public land lying in the drainage basin of Crow Creek, Wyo., and within which are located the reservoirs that supply the city of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Fort D. A. Russell with water for household use and general municipal purposes. Those most affected by this withdrawal are the garrison of Fort D. A. Russell and the citizens of Cheyenne. The result of the withdrawal will be complete protection for the water supply from contamination or pollution of any kind, as the watershed in question lies at a high elevation near the summits of the Laramie Mountains. These lands have little, if any, agricultural value.

CHIEF JEFFERS FOUND GRIP

Grip Stolen Tuesday by Negro Now in Jail, Found by Chief of Police Friday

The suitcase or grip which was stolen on Tuesday by a negro from C. C. Dye, a wealthy Windham, Montana, ranchman while on his way to Pelkey, Kansas, was found Friday by Chief of Police Jeffers in a threshing machine engine which was near the electric light plant.

The case was discovered on the rear platform of the engine, covered with some old overalls. It had been broken open, but nothing was missing. The case will be shipped to Mr. Dye by express. The negro is now serving a term of thirty days in the county jail for the theft. He stoutly maintained that he did not get the case.

These hogs were raised in the county on corn grown here. To a person who sees them they are conclusive proof that hogs can be successfully grown here, as well as other live stock.

Lloyd's Column

Police Magistrate Gregory Zurn is a fresh air fiend. You can go into the police station any morning when the thermometer has shriveled down to zero, and there you will find the aforesaid Gregory in his shirt sleeves, with windows on both sides of him open, with a smile on his face and the words on his lips, "Veil, kinda warrum this morning." Gregory was the first white man married in Box Butte county and lived on the plains when Alliance was the site of a prairie dog town and when he had prairie hay for a mattress and the blue sky for covers, when buffalo meat was something to tire of, and he carried his rifle to fight with Indians; when the duck and wild game were so plentiful in the hills that they obscured the sun in their flight, when dried buffalo meat mixed with berries was his chief article of food; when the person who told him that there would be a town the size of Alliance here and that he would be the police judge, would have been laughed at. Yet at the same time, with all these facts in mind, we don't see why Gregory should leave his windows open and laugh at us shivering in the cold. No, we don't.

F. W. Lester returned recently from Oklahoma City where he has been conducting some very successful horse sales.

"Oklahoma City is noted for two things," said Mr. Lester, "its plentiful supply of chickens and its scarcity of apples. Apples may not be any more scarce there than here, but they are often traded for chickens. You can buy six apples for a nickel and you can trade an apple for a piece of chicken at any restaurant. All they fed me on down there was chicken giblets. I certainly had plenty of that fowl while there." Whether Mr. Lester was joking or not, we don't know, for we've never seen chicken quite as cheap as that, although it is cheaper here than other kinds of meat.

MARKS SELLS HARNESS STORE

Newberry Hardware Company Buys Old Established Harness Business of Marks

The Newberry Hardware company, wholesale and retail hardware dealers, have purchased the stock and business of the Marks Harness company, an old established harness manufacturing and retail business in Alliance, possession to be taken January 1.

H. A. Cunningham, who was formerly employed at the Marks store, will return to Alliance and work in the same position for the Newberry people.

The business and stock will remain in the same building until a new building is erected by the Newberry people at the corner of Fourth street and Box Butte avenue, on the site occupied by the old Ruter building, which was purchased some time ago by Mr. Newberry.

The other attorney is James L. WOULD RAISE MORE MONEY

Fredrickson of Omaha Writes Secretary of Commercial Club for Assistance

H. E. Fredrickson, the Omaha automobile dealer, chief consul in Nebraska for the Lincoln Highway association, whose purpose is to run a cement automobile highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean, has written a letter addressed to the secretary of the commercial club, asking assistance in raising a balance of $10,000,000 which will have to be subscribed and paid in before construction starts.

The sum of $5,000,000 has already been raised. In Nebraska the highway would run from Omaha along the Union Pacific railroad towards Cheyenne, Wyoming. This would make the road miss Alliance by about eighty miles. It is the intention of the promoters of the project to run branch roads to different points. If a branch road was run to the Black Hills, Alliance would undoubtedly be on it.

BIG Y. M. B. C. PIE FEAST

New Year's Skating Party Will Be Held at Bronco Lake. All Members Come

The "big doin'" at the Young Men's Bible Club Friday night turned out to be a regular "pumpkin pie festival". After the regular Bible study, which, by the way, was exceptionally interesting, being on the fifth chapter of Acts, the table was spread and all had their fill of pumpkin pie, sandwiches, cocoa, etc. After all had partaken heartily, a business meeting was held at which Rev. Torrence was appointed leader in the Bible study for the month of January. A new social committee was appointed and several important business matters were discussed.

Beginning with the new year the Y. M. B. C. will be made larger and better than ever, with many new features, socially and otherwise, to increase the attendance and interest in the study of the Bible. The young men are now planning a big New Year's skating party at Bronco lake. All members are invited to come and bring friends. Meet at the club rooms at one o'clock on New Year's day unless otherwise notified.

Red candles were on the table. The place cards were Santa's and stockings. The guests were Ruth Rice, Mrs. Frances Burris Triem, Bessie Kibble, Elva Hamilton, Hattie Renawold, Lulu Sturgeon, Maybelle Pilkington, Laura Mounts, Alta Young and Mrs. Axel Johnson. A lovely time was enjoyed by all.

All Growing Children

are dependent on nourishment for growth. Their health as men and women is largely established in childhood.

If your child is languid, bloodless, tired when rising, without ambition or rosy cheeks, Scott's Emulsion is a wonderful help. It possesses nature's grandest body-building fats so delicately predigested that the blood absorbs its strength and carries it to every organ and tissue and fibre.

First it increases their appetite, then it adds flesh—strengthens the bones—makes them sturdy, active and healthy.

No alcohol or narcotic in Scott's Emulsion, just purity and strength.
